Rolling Along has 10 quilt projects and three small items suitable for these strips. The introduction, called Quiltmaking Basics, is excellent with clear written instructions and diagrams. A newcomer to patchwork would find everything they need to know in this section, especially the importance of ¼" seams. Some of the quilts have appliqué with templates to photocopy. A few darker colored quilts are featured as well as a jolly Christmas quilt. I like the Tote Bag made from shorter strips. The quilting designs are left to the reader's choice. -Patchwork & Quilting magazine.
