An acrylic nail is made of plastic and requires a monomer liquid and polymer powder to create the sculpted nail. Gel nails are a healthier alternative to acrylic nails; they are quicker to apply and even quicker to remove—damage free. Although the pandemic has forced many people to channel their inner nail artist until salons are entirely safe and operating, Seney recommends resisting the urge to do gel extensions yourself until you can see a professional. With gel extensions, you remove them by simply soaking your nails in acetone, and the gel tips dissolve.

You don’t have to worry about gel extensions preventing you from doing your everyday tasks, either. Definition: Take a square shape nail and round out its edges and you end up with this hybrid. Bottom Line: "This is a universally flattering nail shape that looks good on short and long fingers," says Nuñez. Wear It With: She suggests wearing a dark shade with this nail. Single Ladies. "Filed to a point, like a claw. This edgy shape evokes Russ Meyer vixens and Cardi B. Although it has seen a recent surge in popularity, it actually dates back to the mid-20th century," says Miss Pop. "However, I would argue for this shape to be truly wearable, you need gel or acrylic to reinforce the nail." Bottom Line: "It’s good for people who have a daring fashion style," says Choi.
