In- terfed with many useful Scales and Examples, explained in the most familiar Method ever yet Published. To which is added, new, plain and concise Rules for Competition. 1L The most valuable Collection of Psalm and Hymn Tunes, Canons and Anthems, many of which were never before Printed; also the Tunes, Anthems, &c. Sung at the Magdalen, Foundling, Look, and other places of Worship, in and about London, with Words adapted to each Tune. THE WHOLE COMPOSED IN A NEW AN II. A Set of Services, commonly called Chanting-tunes 5 together with five-and-thirty excellent Anthems, composed of Solos, Fuges, and Choruses, several of them being now frequently performed in the Cathedral-church of St. Paul, London, his Majesty's Chapel Royal at St. Jameses, and at Wett minster- abbey, with the greatest Applause.Â A Set of grave and solemn Psalm-tunes, both ancient and modern, containing near one Hundred different Tunes properly adapted to the most select Portions of the Psalms of David, some of them being originally composed for the Cathedral-church of St. Peter, in the City of Rome, in Italy with a great many new Tunes, composed by some of the most eminent Masters that ever existed. IV. A Set of divine Hymns, suited to Psalm 23 is the 23rd psalm of the Book of Psalms, beginning in English in the King James Version: "The Lord is my Shepherd". The Book of Psalms is the third section of the Hebrew Bible, and a book of the Christian Old Testament. In the Greek Septuagint version of the Bible, and in its Latin translation in the Vulgate, this psalm is Psalm 22 in a slightly different numbering system. In Latin, it is known by the incipit, "Dominus regit me".
