Part one is a Fromm biography, while part two includes six essays on Fromm and criminology by contemporary scholars, of which mine is entitled "Erich Fromm and the Frankfurt School Critique of Criminal Justiceâ€ (pp. 83-119). Part three contains annotated translations (by Heinz D. Osterle and me) of Frommâ€™s discussions â€“ during the early years of the Frankfurt School â€“ of the criminal justice system in a class society: â€œThe State as Educator: On the Psychology of Criminal Justiceâ€ (pp. 123-28) and â€œOn the Psychology of the Criminal and the Punitive Societyâ€ (pp. 129-56).
